Court-Approved Legal Notice

If you are a dentist or orthodontist who purchased Invisalign directly from Align, a class action lawsuit may affect your rights.

A class action lawsuit was filed against Align Technology, Inc. (“Align” or Defendant) by two dental practices alleging that Align engaged in anticompetitive conduct causing those who purchased Invisalign Aligners directly from Align to pay more than they should have for those Aligners. Align denies the allegations. The Court has not decided whether Align has done anything wrong.

You are receiving this notice because Align’s records show that you purchased Invisalign Aligners directly from Align, and you may be a Class Member. The Court has allowed the lawsuit to proceed as a class action on the claims alleged in the Complaint on behalf of all persons or entities in the United States that purchased Invisalign Aligners directly from Align during the period beginning January 1, 2019 through March 31, 2022 (the “Class Period”).

What happens if I do nothing at all? You don’t have to do anything now if you want to stay in the class and participate in the class action. By doing nothing, you are staying in the Class. If the Plaintiffs obtain money, either through trial or a settlement, you will be notified of how to obtain a share. If the case proceeds to trial and the Class does not prevail, you will be bound by the judgment. If you stay in the Class, you will be bound by all Orders the Court issues and judgments the Court makes in this class action. There is no money available now. There is no guarantee that money will ever be obtained.

How do I exclude myself? The Court will exclude from the class any member who requests exclusion. To ask to be excluded from the Class, you must send a written “Request for Exclusion” to the Class Administrator. To be valid, your Request for Exclusion must be postmarked by March 15, 2024, and mailed to: Align Direct Purchaser Antitrust Exclusion Request, c/o Class Administrator, P.O. Box 2418, Portland, OR 97208-2418. Further instructions regarding how to exclude yourself are available at www.aligndirectpurchaserantitrust.com. If you exclude yourself, you will not be legally bound by the Court’s judgments in this class action and you will not be able to share in any money that the Class receives from any trial or settlement in this lawsuit.
